

CUBA.

More About the Last Handful of Filibusters—The Hornet and Ryan at Port-au-Prince—Ryan Awaiting a Cargo of Arms From New-York.

HAVANA, Jan. 24.—Two or three more of the last detachment of filibusters landed in Cuba have been killed, including VARELA, their guide. Some reports state that the filibusters came from Key West. There is a general opinion that the capture of the remainder of the detachment is certain.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, via HAVANA, Jan. 24.—The Hornet, with Col. RYAN on board, had arrived at Port-au-Prince, and was waiting for a cargo of arms and ammunition from New-York. Three Spanish gun-boats are watching the Hornet. It is stated that Col. RYAN asked the protection of the American Consul.