

By the arrival of the Illinois at New York we have later news from California. Gen Henningsen and Col. Titus, the Nicaraguan filibusters are among her passengers. The islands in the Bay of Panama have been ceded to England. The report of the execution of Col. Crabb and his companions, the Sonora filibusters, is confirmed. Lieut. Strain died at Panama on the 14th inst. Walker's inglorious capitulation and retreat from Nicaragua was the subject of general rejoicing among the Costa Ricans. Gen. Vivanco, the Peruvian rebel, had met with a defeat at Callao, but had escaped.