

Col. Titus is again to shed his benignant influence in Kansas. The New Orleans Delta says: "By a private letter we learn that Col. Titus is about to depart for Kansas. He complains bitterly of the injustice done him by the Nicaraguan correspondent, and declares his intention to make good his reputation for bravery, if occasion arises, in that territory. 'The Northern abolition papers,' he says, 'will have enough to do to keep track of me.'"