

☞ A correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post says the reason assigned by Col. Titus for leaving Kansas with his Southern followers was, that "Kansas was not meant for a slave State, and it was damned nonsense to try to make it one"—a sensible conclusion, which all intelligent men now concur in, and all honest ones avow.