

DECEASED.—N. C. Barney, of Missouri, who was in Col. Titus' command, en route for Nicaragua, died of gangrene in the New Orleans charity hospital, on the 19th. He had been shot in the leg at a dance house, and the wound not necessarily fatal, was unattended to until too late.