

DECEASED.—W. C. Harney, of Missouri, who was in Col. Titon's command, en route for Nicaragua, died of gangrene in the New Orleans charity hospital, on the 13th. He had been shot in the leg at a dance house, and the wound, not necessarily fatal, was unattended to until too late.