Elvin,

A few lines to let you know that the D.A.'s office has decided not to appeal to the Supreme Court.

I just spoke to Paul. Bavelle was depressed and did not understand why the Attorney General decided not appeal. He was not consulted in the matter.

So... we're not convicts now; we're indicted - therefore we should soon ~~be~~ ~~should~~ be taken back to D.C.

Since our motion for bail and "recusal" have been presented, Paul thinks that the Circuit Court will be deciding the bail motion within a couple of days - or - perhaps Parker will rule on it.

I'm talking to people in Miami so they will now pursue the matter that Ignacio & Miguel were working on (about the meeting that Paul & Larry had in Miami in Dec.). Alfredo is also working on this, I spoke to him this morning and will talk to him tomorrow. Paul will call "them" also.

Well, I hope this one doesn't find you in Marian.

Guilly
