DEATH OF FAMOUS DENTIST

Paris, Nov. 15.—Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the famous American dentist who facilitated the flight of the ex-Empress Eugenie from Paris in 1870, died suddenly here yesterday evening. Dr. Thomas W. Evans was born in Philadelphia about 75 years ago and went to Paris in 1846, where he won a great reputation. Since his advent in the French capital Dr. Evans attended to the teeth of most of the crowned heads of Europe, to say nothing of almost innumerable members of the royal families, excepting Queen Victoria and the Sultan of Turkey. He attended Napoleon III. and the Empress Eugenie, and assisted the latter to escape from Paris in his carriage after the battle of Sedan. Dr. Evans was a very wealthy man, his fortune being estimated at from $25,000,000 to $35,000,000. His wife died last year. They had no children.

He (Dr. Evans) never recovered from the shock of his wife's death. He died of angina pectoris, after 21 hours' illness.
