

We observe in the list of passengers of the steam ship Columbia, which sailed from Charleston for New York on Saturday last, the name of "Capt. Farnum, of the yacht Wanderer." Is this announcement intended as a blind to mislead our vigilant Government officials, or does Capt. Farnum desire their personal attention on his arrival at New York.—Savannah News.

The announcement was simply designed to state a fact of interest. We do not suppose any great mystery or motive is necessarily connected with the usual publication of a list of passengers.
