

J O H N M A S O N,

U P H O L S T E R E R,

In Arch-street, opposite the gate of the Friend's burial ground, and next door to James Watkins, joiner,

CARRIES on the Upholstry business in all its various branches, viz. he makes Venetian beds, window curtains, and sofa's, settoon and canopy beds, window curtains and settees; he papers rooms, and has for sale mattresses, beds, sackings, bottoms and cords, &c. &c. He shall be extremely obliged to those noble and generous Ladies and Gentlemen who delight in employing the industrious.

N. B. Said Mason hopes soon to see such a variety of goods arrive, at this free port, as that he may dispatch business on much easier terms than at present. † March 3.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY on the 30th of July last, a black negro man, named CESAR, 45 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, strong and well made, holds his head very high, has lost some of his fore teeth, and has a four grain look. Had on and took with him, one white kersey uuder and over jacket, one pair red plush breeches, one pair wide country linen trowsers, one pair white yarn stockings, one pair shoes, with odd buckles, a large brim felt hat, and two country linen shirts. He was taken up some time last September and put into New Castle goal, where the goaler says he (with some others) broke out, and that he advertised them in the Pennsylvania news-paper. Whoever secures the said negro fellow in any goal, or delivers him to WILLIAM STEWART, in Kent county, Maryland, near George-Town, or the subscriber, shall be paid the above reward, and all reasonable charges. JOHN PAGE. † 6w.

SIXTY DOLLARS Reward.

STRAYED or stolen from the subscriber, about the middle of last week, the two following MARES, viz. one a bay, with black mane, tail, and legs, has some white hair on her forehead, main, and tail; and her rump mixed with white hair, has two remarkable white saddle marks close to the shoulder blade, is with foal, and had a foal sucking when taken away, the trots neat, and carries her head and tail well, switch tail, pretty short, she is not shod, her main falls to the off side, is branded G H, three quarter blooded, is 8 or 9 years old, between 13 and 14 hands high, and neat and straight limbed. The other a brown mare, with long tail, which may be altered; has a small star in her forehead, carries her head low, has not been broke, nor is shod, trots heavy, and shuffles in her gait, strong made, fit for gears, is rising three years old, and 15 hands high. Whoever takes up said mares, if strayed, and brings them to me, shall have TWELVE DOLLARS reward, and if stolen, the above reward, for thief and mares, and for the mares alone, half the money, if brought to me in Third-street, between South and Snippen-street, or to ROBERT ERVIN, Carter. GEORGE HARDING.

Philadelphia, Feb. 24, 1779. †

W A N T E D,

In Kent county SCHOOL, in the State of Maryland, A Gent eman properly qualified to teach the French language. If he be capable to assist in the Greek, Latin, English, or Mathematic Classes, or master of writing the Round and Italian Hands, he will be the more acceptable. Such a person, with good recommendations, will meet with suitable encouragement, on application to

JOSEPH COUDON.

N. B. A good Dancing-Master is much wanted in Chester-Town aforesaid. † March 3. †

On the twenty-second day of this month, called March, being the second day of the week, will begin the sale of a number of valuable

LOTS OF GROUND,

At Public Vendue, in the borough town of Chester: THREE Lots on the south side of Water-street, each 40 feet in front, and from thence to low water mark, in Delaware.

Three lots on the north-side of Water-street, each 30 feet in front, and 120 feet back.

One lot adjoining the above, of the same dimensions, with a two story house thereon.

Six lots on the north side of Philbert-street, fronting the river, and extending from Market to Welsh-street, each lot 30 feet in front, and 120 feet back.

Six lots on the south side of the said street, each 30 feet front, and 120 feet deep.

Three lots beginning at the south-west corner of the last mentioned street, and extending from thence towards the river, near the lower end of Market-street, each 30 feet front, and 120 deep.

Three lots on the west side of the street, fronting Chester creek, each 30 feet front, and extends from thence to low-water mark in the creek.

Three lots on the east side of the street aforesaid, nearly opposite to the water lots, each 35 feet front, and 93 feet 6 inches back.

One lot joining John Powell's land, near the Court-House, 34 feet front, and 120 feet back.

Two lots near the public Work House, each 50 feet front, and 120 feet back.

Three lots on the east side of the street, fronting Chester creek, being part of the square on which the Court-House stands, each lot being 28 feet in front, and 120 feet back.

A certain frame building, opposite the late dwelling of David Copeland; in Market-street, 23 feet in front, and 20 back. The ground on which this stands, is rented at forty shillings per annum, and the lease expired; but suppose may be continued.

The subscriber would also let upon a lease, a large commodious bake house, together with a building adjoining for a cooper's shop. The bake-house is built of stone, and is 60 feet in length or depth, and 22 front, and has two large well built ovens in it. The adjoining building is also 60 feet deep and 15 feet front, with a chimney in it, to accommodate it for a cooper.

A PLAN of the whole may be seen any time within ten days of the sale, at William Bradford's Coffee-house, or in the hands of the subscriber, at Chester. FRANCIS RICHARDSON.

Northampton county, Virginia, Feb. 1, 1779.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber the beginning of last August, a Negro man named TONY, about twenty years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, large mouth, eyes and feet, very black, accustomed to wait in the house, and attend the stable; pretends to be very knowing about horses and racing; a great liar, and very ready at an excuse when accused of any fault; his clothes of Virginia made linen well worn; he is well acquainted in many of the eastern shore Maryland counties, but suspected to be lurking in some part of Pennsylvania, or about the army, where he will attempt to pass for a freeman. A reward of Sixty Dollars will be given to any person who will secure the above slave in any of the states goals, on application to me, or Mr. Inglis of Philadelphia.

SAMUEL ATCHISON.

T O B E S O L D,

FOR the emission of 11th April, and 20th May, or common Loan Office certificates, twelve hog-heads West-India RUM of an extraordinary quality. Enquire of Mess. Harman and Lewis, at their store near the Draw-bridge in Front-street.

T O B E S O L D,

ABOUT One hundred acres of land called Alexander's Lot, situate in Cecil County, Maryland, adjoining the great Nottingham road, about eight miles distant from Christiana bridge, and six from the Head of Elk, with a mill formerly a good merchant mill, with two pair of good mill-stones, irons and gears suitable; but for want of some repairs at this time, only grinds for the country; a large frame dwelling house and other ous-houses, an old apple orchard, and about half the land within fence. For terms apply to AMOS ALEXANDER, Esq; near the premises, or to the Subscriber in Baltimore town. Also one Lot, with a good Brick House thereon, in Baltimore town, near the English Church; the title of both are indisputable, and possession of either place will be given in April next if required. For terms or further particulars apply to MARK ALEXANDER.

P A R C H M E N T

MADE and sold by ROBERT WOOD, in Fifth-street, near the New Goal, Philadelphia, where Conveyancers, Stationers, Store-keepers, and others, may be supplied with large or small quantities.

One hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN away (October last was a year) from the subscriber, living in Queen Ann's county, in the state of Maryland, a white MOLATTO SLAVE named CORNELIUS, pitted with the smallpox, of a slender make, about five feet nine or ten inches high; his ancles inclines very much towards each other; he is (or at least pretends to be) very religious; can read and write a little, and has been seen among the Virginia forces last spring; he may have enlisted for a soldier. Whoever secures said Cornelius in any goal on this continent, shall receive the above reward.

Jan. 20, 1779. † 6w. † CALEB RICKETTS.

T O B E S O L D,

A Healthy, pleasant, and profitable PLANTATION, not far from Philadelphia, on the West side of Delaware, containing two hundred and eighty five acres, one hundred and twenty-five of which is marsh meadow, under good bank; and twenty-five acres upland meadow. The upland is excellent for barley, and fuel sufficient for the constant use of the farm. A genteel and commodious dwelling-house of brick, with a garden, very good water, and every necessary improvement; the title good. For further particulars apply to GEORGE CAMPBELL, Esq; in Walnut-street. Feb. 12.

Northen Liberty Ferry, Feb. 16.

ANY person to whom the subscriber stands indebted in the year 1773, or since, are desired to send their accounts, properly attested, for payment; and those indebted to him are requested to make speedy payment, to avoid any further expence that attends the recovery thereof.

JESSE WILLIAMSON.

To be SOLD or RENTED,

A LOT of GROUND, situate in the district of South-wark, below the Play-House, at the entrance of Passyunk road; the Lot is 120 feet on Oak or Shippen-street, and 65 feet on Passyunk road, clear of ground rent: On said Lot is erected three brick-houses and one wooden house, chair house, stable and hay loft; a large garden to the three story houses, pump and well before the kitchen door. For further particulars enquire of ROBERT HARDIE, on the premises. † March 3.