

ALBANY, July 10.

J. L. Russell, captain of the canal boat J. F. Crain, of the Rochester city line, was arrested here this morning, charged with being an accomplice of Merrill in kidnapping Solomon Northrup. He admitted that he was at the inaugural in Washington in 1841. He was ironed and taken to Balston Spa for trial.