

Pittsboro', Aug. 29, 1853.

Mr. P. B. BARBOUR:

Dear Friend—I have heard you deliver a discourse on Intemperance, and one on Slavery. They were characterized by your remarkably original, strong and fruitful mind. I hope you will be frequently invited to speak on these important subjects.

Your friend,

GERRIT SMITH.