

---

It is stated that the Secretary of War has accepted the Indian regiment raised in Wisconsin. They will be commanded by Dr. P. B. Randolph, who receives the rank of Colonel. The regiment will soon be mustered into the service of the United States. Its destination is the Far West, where it will pay its respects to the red tribes mastered by the confederate rebels.