
CONVENTION FOR A DISSOLUTION OF THE UNION:

—A card appears in the N. Y. Tribune, signed by about a hundred citizens of Worcester, Mass., for a Convention in that city, on the the 15th inst., "to consider the practicability, probability and expediency of a seperation between the Free and Slave States, and to take such other measures as the condition of the times may require."