

NEW YORK, 3d.

THE CAPTAIN OF THE "WANDERER" TAKEN FROM JAIL. A special despatch from Charleston to the Herald says:—"I have learned from Savannah that last night Capt. Farnham, of the yacht Wanderer, in jail in that city on a charge of piracy, was taken out by Mr. Lamar, the owner, and others, in the face of the sheriff, amidst great excitement. Bail had been required, and it was tendered and accepted. The cause which led to this was the late violation of the Fugitive Slave Law in Troy, N. Y."

Second Despatch. Additional particulars of the arrest of Farnum, state that when the U. S. Marshal attempted to re-arrest the prisoner, he was resisted by revolvers.

The Marshall finally compromised by taking $30,000 bail for Farnum's appearance today.
