

District of Columbia, to wit :

I E it remembered, that on the 10th day of November, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-one, Thomas R. Gray, of the said District, deposited in this Office the title of a book, which is in the words following : The confessions of Nat Turner, the leader of the late insurrection in Southampton, Virginia, as fully and voluntarily made to Thomas R. Gray, in the prison where he was confined, and acknowledged by him to be such when read before the Court of Southampton, with the certificate, under seal, of the Court convened at Jerusalem, November 5th, 1831, for his trial. Also, an authentic account of the whole insurrection, with lists of the whites that were murdered, and of the negroes brought before the Court of Southampton, and their sentence, &c. ; the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in conformity with an act of Congress, entitled "An act to amend the several acts respecting copy rights."

EDM. I. LEE,

Clerk of the District Court.

In testimony that the above is a true copy from the the records of the District Court for the District
[SEAL] of Columbia, I, Edmund I. Lee, the Clerk thereof, have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the seal of my office, this 10th day of November, 1831.
